

Catholic Social Services of Wayne County receives credit unions' donation

Patrick Heron (right), President/CEO of Catholic Social Services of Wayne County
Hank Hubbard (left), President /CEO of Communicating Arts Credit Union

On December 3, Catholic Social Services of Wayne County received a $500 donation from the Metro West Chapter of Credit Unions, presented by Hank Hubbard, president and CEO of Communicating Arts Credit Union (CACU). This donation was made on behalf of 40 credit unions located in western Wayne County.

Catholic Social Services of Wayne County was presented with this gift to provide assistance to families and children in need during the holiday season.

According to Patrick Heron, President/CEO for CSSWC, "This wonderful contribution will help make the holiday season brighter for the children in our foster care program and their families".

CSSWC is grateful to the Metro West Chapter of Credit Unions and its community partner, CACU