A Message from CSSWC’s Leadership

Empowering People and Uplifting Communities.

Since 1946 Community Social Services of Wayne County has been a beacon of hope to many. For 70 years the organization has helped to heal thousands of families, restore the lives of countless individuals and act as a stable resource in the community – and we hope to continue this great work for 70 years more.

We have provided Child Welfare, Behavioral Health, Education and Senior Services to thousands of people from this community- that means Detroit and all of Southeastern Michigan. Our staff and dedicated Board of Directors are constantly looking for ways to make the programs we offer stronger and add new services which help CSSWC empower people and uplift communities.

There continues to be an increase in demand for services provided through our agency, even as funding continues to decrease. CSSWC’s legacy is to give hope through human service to individuals, children, teens, families and seniors. These services include transitional housing, counseling, job preparedness, foster care, educational and services to seniors.

Funding cuts often make it difficult to provide these services, yet we are able to help those in need without turning anyone away because of contributions from our generous donors. Without your support, CSSWC would not be able to offer assistance to those who look to us during the most vulnerable time in their lives.

We are grateful for your ongoing support and we look forward to working together.

Very truly yours,

Brenda Motley-Aikens, Esq.
